

- 241

G 9 G 88

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

0 011 712 377 7

Battle March 15th, 1781

Celebration July 4th, 1903

You are Invited to Attend The Annual Celebration

of the Guilford Battle Ground Company

on the Historic

Battle Field of Guilford Court House,

July 4th, 1903.

COMMITTEE OF INVITATION:

W. H. Osborn,
Charles Sledman,
J. F. Jordan,
W. R. Land,
Simpson Schenck,

James E. Boyd,
Ceasar Cone,
Chas. D. McIver,
R. Percy Gray,
R. M. Douglas,

James T. Morehead,
Andrew Joyner,
Jos. M. Reece,
R. W. Haywood,
David Dreyfus.

MECCA OF PATRIOTISM

THE GUILFORD BATTLE GROUND COMPANY was organized May 6th, 1887, at Greensboro, N. C.

Its object is to redeem from waste the battle field of Guilford Court House, and adorn it as a park and erect monuments thereon. It owns one hundred acres of this battle field, which is laid off in walks, drives, and avenues. There are nineteen monuments already completed, and two in course of construction. Five delightful Springs are fitted up. Lake Wilfong, on the grounds, is a lovely sheet of water. Ten thousand people attend the celebration every year. The addresses all rise to the dignity of history. The museum of Relics is a most valuable and interesting feature.

The battle was fought between Gen. Nathaniel Greene and Lord Cornwallis, March 15th, 1781. The British were driven from the state.

Author.

30Je'03

Subject : “Heroes of King’s Mountain.”

TO THE

HEROES OF KING’S MOUNTAIN

presented to the Company by the National Marble Company, of Cherokee, N. C., will be unveiled, together with the noble

WASHINGTON-GREENE MARKER.

ORATION

COL. W. A. HENDERSON,

OF TENNESSEE.

Subject : “Heroes of King’s Mountain.”

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

0 011 712 377 7